

Preamble #54 – New Country, New Challenges

In the United States, early foreign issues were of incredible importance. For the young nation to survive, they had to exist in a world with tense relations.

1. Should the new nation get involved in foreign affairs? Why or why not?
2. How should the United States negotiate with foreign powers?
3. Watch the video....What did Washington decide?